Lausanne, Switzerland, 12 March, 2025 – For the seventh consecutive year EHL Hospitality Business School is nominated as the world's best institution in hospitality management education. At the same time, EHL continues to strengthen its influence in the field of business management, reinforcing its growing reputation for excellence in broader sectors such as luxury, finance and real estate.

Each year, the independent and sought-after ranking agency QS releases its rankings on the highest quality educational institutions in the world across around sixty disciplines.

“Maintaining the global #1 position in hospitality management for seven years is a testament to the success of our graduates and the excellence of our institution. This distinction highlights our commitment to educating future leaders capable of empowering growth by nurturing excellence in human experiences. We are proud to support the development and transformation of the hospitality and service sectors.” says Markus Venzin, CEO of EHL.

On the international stage, EHL continues its upward trajectory in the global ranking of universities for business management studies, especially thanks to improvements in its academic and employer reputation indicators. The institution has also advanced at the national level, reaching 5th place among Switzerland's top business schools this year. “The progress in the business school ranking illustrates the transferability of hospitality skills across a wide range of industries. This momentum is driven by the evolution of EHL's educational portfolio, which is expanding its offerings in collaboration with leading partners in fields such as luxury and healthcare, addressing the growing demand in these industries for human-centered service." explained Dr. Achim Schmitt, Dean of EHL Hospitality Business School.

QS methodology is primarily based on in-depth surveys conducted among thousands of academics and recruiters worldwide. In Hospitality & Leisure Management, employers' opinion accounts for 50% of the final score. Once again, EHL has achieved 100/100 points in this key indicator, underscoring the trust and recognition our graduates enjoy in the job market.

Through its education and strong industry connections, EHL Hospitality Business School continues to shape the future of the hospitality and service sectors. As the industry evolves rapidly, the institution remains committed to excellence by equipping students with the skills and experience needed to thrive in an ever-changing environment.
